BELLINGHAM'S

CELEBRATED

Stimulating Onguent,

FOR THE

Whiskers and Hair.

THE subscribers take pleasure in announcing to the citizens of the United States, that they have obtained the Agency for, and are now enabled to offer to the American public, the above justly celebrated and world-renowned article.

THE STIMULATING ONGUENT

is prepared by Dr. C. P. BELLINGHAM, an eminent physician of London, and is warranted to bring out a thick set of in from three to six weeks. This article is the only one of the kind used by the French, and in London and Paris it is in universal use.

It is a beautiful, economical, soothing, yet stimulating compound, acting as if by magic upon the roots, causing a beautiful growth of luxuriant hair. If applied to the scalp, it will cure and cause to spring up in place of the bald spots a fine growth of new hair. Applied according to directions, it will turn and restore gray hair to its original color, leaving it soft, smooth, and flexible. The "ONGUENT" is an indispensable article in every gentleman's toilet, and after one week's use they would not for any consideration be without it.

The subscribers are the only Agent for the article in the United States, to whom all orders must be addressed.

PRICE ONE DOLLAR A BOX.

For sale by all Druggists and Dealers; or a box of the "Onguent" (warranted to have desired effect) will be sent to any who desires it, by mail (direct,) securely packed, on receipt of price and postage, $1,18.

DAILY GAZETTE.

Southern Opinion of Northern Men and the German Element.

DeBow's Southern Review shows conclusively in what estimation the hard-fisted, hard-working northern militia are held by the south. We copy the latest article from their model journal:

Should New York fail to erect herself into a free port and separate republic; should she remain under the dominion of the corrupt, venal wire-workers of Albany, and of the immoral, infidel, agrarian, free love democracy of western New York; should she put herself under the rule of Puritans, the vilest, most selfish and unprincipled of the human race; should she join a Northern Confederacy; should she make New England, Western New York, Northern Ohio, Northern Indiana or Northern Illinois her masters; should she make enemies of her southern friends, and deliver herself up to the tender mercies of her northern enemies, she will sink to rise no more. Better, a thousand times better, to come under the dominion of free negroes or gipseys, than of Yankees, or low Germans or Canadians. Gipseys and free negroes have many amiable, noble and generous traits; Yankees, sour-krout Germans and Canadians none.—Senator Wade says, and Seward too, that the north will absorb Canada. They are half true; the vile, sensual, animal, brutal, infidel, superstitious democracy of Canada and the Yankee states will coalesce; and Senator Johnson of Tennessee will join them. But when Canada and Western New York and New England, and the whole beastly, puritanic, 'sour-krout,' free negro, infidel, superstitious, licentious, democratic population of the North become the masters of New York—what then? Outside of the city, the state of New York is Yankee and puritanical; composed of as base, unprincipled, superstitious, licentious, and agrarian and anarchial population as any on earth. Nay, we do not hesitate to say, it is the vilest population on earth. If the city does not secede and erect a separate republic, this population, aided by the ignorant, base, brutal, sensual German infidels of the north-west; the stupid democracy of Canada (for Canada will in some way coalesce with the north,) and the arrogant and tyrannical people of New England, will become masters of the destinies of New York.

A THRILLING INCIDENT AT CAMP CURTIN—AN AMERICAN EAGLE SURVEYS THE CAMP.—One of the most thrilling incidents connected with the military operations of the day took place at Camp Curtin on Saturday afternoon. A number of persons were engaged in raising the stars and stripes over the main building, as the head-quarters of the officers, and just as everything was in readiness, and the men had seized the halyards to run up the flag, a large eagle came from no one knew where, hovered over the flag, and sailed majestically over the encampment while the flag was run up!—Thousands of eyes were upturned in a moment, and as the noble bird looked down, the cheers of three thousand men rent the air! Never was such ovation paid the "Imperial Bird of Jove." It lingered for a few minutes, apparently not a particle frightened at the terrific noise—then cleaving the air with his pinions he disappeared in the horizon.

In the days of the Roman Republic this would have been looked upon as a glorious omen, and we do not see why we should not look upon it as such now.

Never was an incident looked upon with more favor. It sent a patriotic thrill thro' every heart that witnessed it, and every man seemed to be animated with the deepest feeling of patriotism and devotion to the Flag of our Union.—Harrisburg Patriot and Union.

GEN. LANE.—Indescribable consternation has spread through Virginia because of the arrival here of the famous General Lane and Captain Montgomery, of Kansas. They have with them nearly two hundred of the desperadoes of the civil wars of that territory. They are to act as an independent corps of scouts for dangerous and forlorn service.—Phila. Press.

Col. Lee, of Arlington, son-in-law of the late George Washington Parke Curtis, who has joined the secessionists, has, I learn, sold his property to the state of Virginia for war purposes. It has heights upon the south side of the Potomac commanding Washington. But the War Department has been ahead of Virginia, for it has had skillful officers examining those heights and marking off grounds for fortifications.—Phila. Press.

AN ENGLISH TRAVELER IN AFRICA BLOWN UP.—A curious accident to an English traveler, Mr. John Burgess, recently happened. He was on his way from Hopetown South Africa, with a party to join Dr. Livingstone at the Zambesi. He had with him three Europeans, several natives, and three wagons, which contained, among other things, a considerable quantity of gunpowder. On the 22d of August the party came to a halt, and Mr. Burgess, after fatiguing himself in an elephant hunt, went to one of the wagons, where he lay down to rest and smoke a cigar. In two minutes after an explosion took place; he and two natives were blown up, the wagons were destroyed and seven horses killed. The rest of the party escaped. He was a fine young man, and only twenty-three years of age.

TREASON OF JOHN BELL.—Prentice, of the Louisville Journal, who has, we suppose, written more kind things of John Bell than any man living, thus comments on his recent treason:

A more sudden and utter and inglorious defection was never suffered by a sacred and imperilled cause. It must excite unspeakable mortification and disgust and indignation in the breast of every true and enlightened lover of his country. It is a burning scandal to the cause of constitutional liberty.

GRAPES—DISTANCE TO PLANT.—Bright recommends in his renewal system, planting strong two year old plants in rows six or eight feet apart, and two feet apart in the rows. Set in a slanting direction, about four inches under the surface of the earth, close up to the young wood of the last year's growth, or bury two inches of the young wood, and cut down to two eyes.

☞ A company is nearly completed in Albany, N. Y., made up of members of the Young Men's Christian Association, led by its president.

Remember that in a campaign more men die from sickness than by the bullet.

The Twenty Days nearly Expired.

Mr. Lincoln, in his proclamation, dated on the 15th of April, declared that combinations existed to oppose the laws, too powerful to be suppressed in an ordinary way, and having called for militia from the several states to assist him, he gave notice to the persons composing such combinations to disperse within twenty days.

These were important days for the south. Within that time they must make their choice to become loyal citizens or rebels. They have already chosen the path of treason. The period of clemency is nearly up. On Sunday next it will have ended, and the administration will then be free to make aggressive movements against the combination of traitors wherever they may be found. Heretofore it has considered it a duty to act merely upon the defensive, so that the terms of the proclamation might be faithfully adhered to.

We may expect that on Monday the blockade of the southern ports will be put in force. Whatever plans of a campaign Gen. Scott may have matured, will then be put into active operation. We anticipate an active week in the army and navy, following next Sunday. We cannot anticipate, of course, what will be done, but the great points for occupation and defence are plainly before the nation. They are Washington, Fort Monroe, Baltimore, Norfolk and Richmond, on the eastern side of the country, and Fort Pickens, New Orleans and Cairo in the west and southwest. Other points will undoubtedly receive attention, but these are the main points, at present.

Since the issuing of the proclamation the rebels have manifested no disposition to give up their mad scheme of war and disunion; on the contrary they have been more belligerent than ever, and it must be supposed they have deliberately made up their minds to inaugurate civil war. On the other hand the northern people have shown by a universal and spontaneous uprising for the constitution and the Union, that they are ready with their lives and their money to uphold the government.—Within this twenty days party lines have been burnt out, and we are now one people, united heart and soul in a determination that "the Union shall be preserved."

Naval Resignations.—The Washington Republican says that "the applications to get back into the service, from naval officers who had resigned from various causes before the present crisis, including a large number from the south, exceed the current resignations. Also, that the retired list contains many names which may be advantageously transferred to the active list. The navy is neither embarrassed, nor likely to be embarrassed, by and want of officers."

Always True.—The Hon. Thos. A. R. Nelson, of Tennessee, made a speech at Knoxville the other day, in which, Parson Brownlow's paper says:

He declared his unalterable attachment to the Union—denied the right of secession—exposed the whole plot of the secessionists, on the part of the cotton states—repudiated the slavery agitation of the north—and boldly asserted, that while he regretted the war now raging, he maintained that Lincoln's call for volunteers was lawful and constitutional, and that under the circumstances, with his oath of office resting upon him, he could not have done less than call out the militia.

Another Rebuff.—The New York Albion, the organ of British sentiment in this country, administers the following rebuke, in the last number, to "Mr. Jefferson Davis:"

We are glad to hear that Mr. Jefferson Davis has postponed the issue of letters of marque, until the plan be sanctioned by the confederate congress, summoned for Monday next. We trust, for humanity's sake, that they will not sanction it, for we see no reason for changing the opinion we expressed last week, as to the madness of any such scheme. It is certain that the men-of-war of all nations would combine in treating such vessels as pirates.

Arms for the State.—The Madison Journal says Gov. Randall received a despatch from Gen. Wool stating that an order had been forwarded by mail directing Gov. Yates to furnish this state with three thousand stand of arms, from those recently transferred from the arsenal at St. Louis to Illinois.

☞ Mr. J. Brayton Harlow, brother of E. G. Harlow, of this city, is a member of a volunteer company from Pekin, Ill., and is stationed at Cairo. He formerly lived in Janesville.

☞ Gen. Rufus King obtained from Major Anderson a piece of the flag-staff of Ft. Sumter, and has presented it to the first Wisconsin regiment, which Col. Starkweather has ordered engrafted into the regimental flag-staff, as a talisman of victory.

☞ The village of Jefferson has raised $4000 for the support of the families of volunteers.

☞ The Illinois legislature has passed a bill to raise ten regiments of troops for the service of that state, and appropriated a million of dollars to pay expenses.

War Items.

In one respect, it seems Illinois is to gain what Virginia, by her treason, loses. By the destruction of the government armory and arsenal at Harper's Ferry, it becomes necessary to replace those establishments, and to locate them in a more loyal and safe part of the country—and, if report speaks correctly, the government has wisely selected Rock Island, in the Mississippi, the site of old Fort Armstrong, for their location.

Some of the volunteer companies ordered to Harper's Ferry by order of Gov. Letcher, refused to march under any other flag but that of the United States, and when threatened, threw down their muskets and disbanded.

The Express free to Volunteers.—The American Express Company request us to say that they will convey any goods, baggage or and article, free of charge, to or from the military, during the service of the United States.—Albany Evening Journal.

The Atlanta, Ga., Intelligencer says Col. Todd of Missouri passed through that city on Wednesday last, on his way from Montgomery to St. Louis, where he returns to raise two regiments which he will tender to the confederate states. Commissioners from Missouri are now in Montgomery in consultation with the heads of the rebel government.

We learn through the Memphis Avalanche that at the first station beyond Tennessee river on the Memphis, Clarksville and Louisville railroad, a man was hung by the populace on Thursday for expressing sentiments unfavorable to the south. He was known as Squire Nichols.

The report that Sen. Mason, the plotter of treason in Virginia, has been arrested, appears to be a mistake, which is to be regretted. The gallows will be cheated of one of its ripest claims if he escapes its halter.

Iowa.—Gov. Kirkwood has called an extra session of the legislature to meet on the 15th inst., at Des Moines.

The Memphis Avalanche bitterly complains of the Hon. Emerson Etheridge, the true-hearted patriot, because, in a recent speech, "he took the monstrous position that the federal government must be sustained!"

Departure of the Volunteers.

The following is the programme of proceedings to be observed by the several commands, etc., joining in the escort next Monday to Capt. Ely's volunteer company:

The line will be formed on Main street, precisely at half-past 10 o'clock A. M., the right, preceded by the band, resting on C. H. Conrad's house, and in the following order:

1st. The Janesville Light Guard, Capt. Wheeler.

2d. The Fire Department, under command of the Chief Engineer, W. B. Britton, in the following order—1st, Water Witch Engine company No. 2; 2d, Sack company No. 1; 3d, Hook & Ladder company No. 1; 4th, Washington Engine company No. 3.

3d. His Honor, the Mayor, and Common Council.

4th. Citizens generally.

Societies desirous of participating in the ceremonies of the occasion, will report to the Grand Marshal without delay.

IRA JUSTIN, Jr., Grand Marshal.

Col. R. H. White, Col. Robert Patten and E. Bradley, esq., have been appointed Assistant Marshals.

Appropriate ceremonies will be observed at the depot previous to the departure of the volunteers.

☞ Ten bids were in for the construction of the capitol extension. The bids were opened on Wednesday evening. We have not yet heard the award. The completion of the capitol, according to the plan, will make it the finest looking state capitol in the Union, so far as our knowledge extends.

That Flag.—The white flag reported to have been borne by the Massachusetts regiment when it fought its way through Baltimore, was the regular Massachusetts standard. It is a flag of white silk, with the arms of the Union on one side, and those of the state on the reverse. Massachusetts troops ask no truce with a mob of traitors. —Boston Journal.

Quick Work.—An instance of the celerity of movements is seen in a company 16 miles from Boston, the commander of which was sitting at the dinner table at 1 o'clock, discussing the possibility of his being ordered out. The door bell rung. It was the order. In three hours after (4 P.M.) he marched into Faneuil Hall with 85 men fully equipped and ready.

How a Coat was Identified.—In the justice's court in Boston, a case was recently decided in the most novel way. A coat was in dispute, and the evidence was direct and positive, for both parties were Irish, full of wit, readier to lose all they had than give up the coat.

The affair was carefully examined, and the court was in a quandary, not knowing who had the best right to the garment.—However, a moment before the judge was about to sum up the evidence, Pat Powers, one of the claimants, made the following proposition in order to settle the difficulty:

"Now, Tim O'Brien, ye say that coat belongs to yourself; I say it's me own. Now mind ye, Tim, the both av us will take the coat an' look it all over; the one that finds his name on it is the owner."

"Done," said Tim. "An ye'll stick to the bargain?" asked he.

"Av coorse," as he passed the coat into the hands of Timothy, who vainly searched every part of it for his name, and finally passed it back to Patrick, saying:

"An' now let us see if you'll find the likes av yer blaggard name upon the garmint."

"Ye'll stick to the bargain?" said Patrick, grasping the coat.

"Yes, on the honor of a man," was the reply.

"Then hould a bit," said Pat, as he took out his pen knife and opened a corner in the collar of the coat, taking therefrom two very small peas, exclaiming as he held them in his hand:

"There, d'ye see that?"

"Av coorse I do, but what av it?" said Tim.

"A deal it has to do wid it, it's me name to be sure—pea for Patrick and pea for Powers, be jabbers."

He got the coat, and he well deserved it, too.

Telegraphic.

REPORTED FOR THE DAILY GAZETTE.

BY WISCONSIN STATE TELEGRAPH LINE, Office in Union Passenger Depot.

Last Night's Report.

New York, May 2.

World's Washington special despatch says the blockade of Virginia forts will be effected on Monday by a fleet between Capes Charles and Henry. Numbers of Union men have arrived, being driven out of Virginia.

Annapolis, May 1—4 p. m.

The steamship Baltic has arrived with the N. Y. Zouaves on board. A great demonstration was made on their landing.—The Zouaves were greatly disappointed at not being permitted to visit Baltimore.

The Baltic reports all quiet in the Bay. Gun boats are cruising up and down continually. The Rhode Island artillery has not landed, and they are under orders for important service below Washington.

The 69th regiment from New York is stationed all along the road to Washington in squads, within hailing distance of each other.

A captain of the 69th regiment was arrested as a spy night before last at Annapolis, just from Montgomery, with important papers. He is a brother of the Grandville, of Hoboken, N. J., killed by a Cuban some time since. He will probably be hung.

A son of an influential family here is under arrest as a spy. He opened despatches delivered him at Washington.

The correspondent of the Baltimore Sun has left, fearing arrest. The populace were desirous of lynching him.

I learn at the state house that the legislature of Maryland will doubtless order a state convention, probably about the 30th of May.

It is said that the Union feeling is rapidly gaining ground.

One week of secession rule disgusted many of the former advocates of secession.

New York, May 2.

The steamship Adriatic from Galway via St. Johns, will be up at 10 o'clock. It is reliably stated from Annapolis Junction, that the 69th regiment caught a man attempting to draw spikes from the rails, and shot him in obedience to order. They also arrested two spies.

Montreal, May 2.

Reported steamer United States, from Graygon, for Montreal, is ashore off Farther Point.

Boston, May 2.

Major Dodds's battalion left on the steamer Cambridge to-day, supposed for Fort Monroe.

Hartford, May 2.

The governor's message to the legislature speaks in high terms of Col. Samuel Colt's service, and his tendering breech-loading revolving rifles, to arm a regiment of ten companies.

St. Louis, May 2.

The Cairo correspondent of the Journal writes as follows:

We have been able to ascertain the main points of conversation between Gen. Beechner, Sen. Johnson, of Kentucky, and Col. Prentiss. It consists of additional guarantees on the part of the former that Kentucky will maintain a neutral position, and that she will not allow confederate troops to cross her border to invade any northern state, nor countenance organizing any portion of her own citizens for that purpose.

In return, she required guarantees on the part of the authorities of this state that her territory should suffer no invasion from Illinois.

They protested against blockade of rivers at this point; claiming that jurisdiction only extended to the Illinois shore. Nothing but munitions of war will be interfered with under the present status.

A Pensacola correspondent of the Mobile Advertiser, under date of May 25th, says several barbette guns have been removed from Fort Pickens, but for what purpose is unknown. Also, a few batteries have been erected outside the fort.

The Montgomery correspondent of the same paper says much anxiety exists relative to the present conflict in border states, especially Maryland and Virginia.

Great activity exists in the war department, and troops were being hurried into the field.

The cabinet decided to call out fourteen regiments in addition to the 32,000 men already called. More than double the whole number have tendered their service.

Six new regiments will be taken from the southern states, not members of the southern confederacy.

The Montgomery government will co-operate with every southern state and furnish men, money and munitions to aid them to resist any force which may be brought in opposition to it.

Special despatch to the Chicago Tribune.

Washington, May 2.

According to the latest advices, General Patterson's organization of corps d'armee is to be marched in two columns of ten thousand each, through Maryland, with Baltimore as a converging point. The movement progresses with the utmost rapidity; he expects to be ready to move in less than a week. The two divisions that will be stationed at and above Annapolis are nearly concentrated at this moment.

A dozen men-of-war, under command of Com. Stringham, will be very shortly put to sea for the blockade of southern ports.—The whole of the blockade fleet will consist of over fifty armed vessels, and be accompanied by steam transports carrying a land force of twenty thousand, which will be kept hovering on the coast, from the mouth of the James River to that of the Rio Grande, to harass the secession army and effect landings at exposed points.

One of the first movements will be the landing of at least ten thousand men to raise the siege of Fort Pickens, and recapture Pensacola navy yard.

There can be no doubt that in less than a month every inlet on the southern coast will be cleared.

An immense flag was raised at noon today by the President over the patent office, in the presence of a vast multitude. Mr. Lincoln, several members of the cabinet, Gov. Sprague, and other civil and military notables were present. Bands performed national airs, patriotic songs were chanted, and addresses delivered.

Regular communication with the north is now established for the benefit of the traveling public over the military rail and water route via Annapolis and Perrysville road to Annapolis, operated under the auspices of the government by the Pennsylvania Central railroad company. The equivocal position of the Baltimore & Ohio company during the last two weeks is likely to result in the ruin of their road.

No communication as yet with Baltimore. There is excitement in Western Maryland in consequence of continued invasions of organized secessionists searching dwellings for arms.

Scouting parties of government troops now frequently extend their excursions upon Virginia soil. Secessoin outposts thus far always run upon their approach.

The seventh regiment went into camp today, on the northern outskirts of the city. Before they marched out they were treated to a splendid dinner at Willard's. Frame barracks for the accommodation of troops are now erecting all over the city.

New Orleans, May 2.

Vanderu with 800 Texans captured 450 federal troops under Major Sibley, who were at Indianola, and attempted to escape in two sailing vessels. Vanderu pursued them in three small steamers, and shortly after their route seaward was cut off by a steamer from Galveston with 120 men and 3 pieces of artillery. Sibley surrendered. The officers were allowed to go on parole, and the arms turned over to the Confederate States. The men are allowed to join the army of the Confederate States, or take an oath not to serve against it.

Frederick, Md., May 2.

A bill was reported to appoint a committee for public safety, with power to provide better organization for militia and state defense, but subject to any convention called by the people, who shall have power to remove any or all members of the board.

Trenton, May 2.

A bill was reported in the Legislature today appropriating one million dollars to the defense of the country and support of the military.

A bill was passed authorizing Newark to borrow $100,000 and Trenton $10,000 for the support of the families of volunteers.

Washington, May 2.

The diplomatic corps have been furnished with Lincoln's two blockading proclamations, and manifest no unfriendliness, but show a disposition to respect it.

The blockading force under Com. Stringham will comprise fifty war vessels, accompanied by a land force twenty thousand strong; enough to make an efficient blockade of every Southern inlet.

Special despatch to the Chicago Tribune.

Cairo, May 2.

Another full regiment arrived here to-day from camp Yates.

Passengers from below continue to report the assembling of bodies of men at Memphis. It is said they are short of arms. Let them come here and take them. We have a surplus.

It is said that the Union feeling is gaining ground in Kentucky, especially in the west, where the disloyalty has been most marked.

The weather here is excellent, and the boys are in good spirits.

Only one boat from the south to-day.

No orders yet to stop provisions.

To-Day's Report.

[Reported Exclusively for the Daily Gazette.]

Washington, May 2.

The principal officers of the military department at Washington are, Col. Mansfield, commanding; Maj. Barnard, chief engineer; Maj. Buckler, chief Q. M. department; Lieut. Beckwith, chief of subsistence department, and Surgeon Lamb, medical inspector.

Col. Ellsworth's Fire Zouaves arrived to day and were enthusiastically cheered.

The 69th still guards the railroad from Annapolis to Washington Junction.

Frederick, May 2.

The following is the abstract of the report of the committee on federal relations, to the assembly, on the subject of a communication from the mayor of Baltimore, relative to the early restoration of railway communication between Baltimore and other points.

The committee considered the interception of travel an aggravated evil; but if facilities for invasion were offered to fanatical and excited multitudes from the north, who publicly threaten our destruction, it could be hardly consistent with prudence to reopen these channels of intercourse with northern states.

The report animadverts on the course of the federal governmeat in stationing troops at Annapolis and on the road to Washington, and considers such a course as being treated as a conquered province, and it is therefore the duty of the legislature to ascertain the position which the general government is determined to occupy towards the state.

The committee conclude with the following resolutionn: That commissioners be appointed to confer with President Lincoln with regard to preventing any military use and occupation of the state by the general government, and also to ascertain and report whether any arrangements are necessary for the maintenance of the peace and honor of Maryland. Adopted by both the senate and house.

Washington, May 3.

The Petersburg Express of to-day says it is positive that a Kentucky regiment of 400 men are en route for Lynchburg.

The governor has determined to station a large number of troops at Petersburg.

The Charleston Courier of Tuesday says—"We learn from the most reliable source that President (?) Davis' forces are gathering in Virginia."

Annapolis, May 2.

The garrison of Fort Monroe number one thousand men and 300 regulars.

Five thousand Virginians were on the opposite side. The Virginians are erecting a battery at the entrance of Hampton Roads.

From information receieved from private sources, we learn that Maryland will probably not call a convention.

The secessionists dare not use the power so suddenly acquired. They say all is lost and the state has been sold by the governor.

A requisition will in time be made for federal volunteers, an order was drawn up when the outbreak occured in Baltimore.

Washington, May 3.

From private information, believed reliable, it is ascertained that Virginia herself does not meditate an attack on Washington.

Boston, May 3.

By permission of the secretary of the treasury the steamer Bradford, of the Boston and Baltimore line, will sail to-morrow with a full cargo for Baltimore. She is forbidden to call at Norfolk.

Washington, May 2.

The Southern Confederacy flag is flying over the capital of North Carolina. The State is actually out of the Union.

The Governor has organized a camp of instruction at Raleigh. He says the northern government is now concentrating a large force in the District of Columbia, ostensibly to protect the seat of government; but such a force cannot be allowed to remain within the limits of Maryland, and on the border of Virginia, without seriously endangering the liberties of the people of those States. If they be conquered and Virginia overran, we will become the next prey to the invaders. Policy, then, as well as sympathy, and a feeling of brotherhood engendered by a common interest, requires us to exert our energies in defense of Maryland and Virginia.

The Markets.

New York, May 3.

Flour receipts 1009 barrels, market dull and heavy for common, and firm and advancing with sales of 8000 barrels, 5,00a5,15 super state; 5,20a5,30 extra state; 5,00a 5,15 super western; 5,20a5,50 common to medium extra western; 5,55a5,60 shipping brands extra R. H. O. Canada flour quiet and steady, sales 550 barrels, 5,60a5,60.—Wheat receipts 9003 bushels, market dull and heavy, very firm for choice qualities, 1,30a1,31 in store for winter red western; 1,60 white Kentucky; 1,42a1,50 white western; 1,32 Canada club.

A Clerical Veteran.—The venerable Dr. Usher Parsons, who was with Commodore Perry at the battle of Lake Erie, has tendered his services to accompany the 2d regiment of Rhode Island as surgeon.

Green County Items.—We select the following from the Monroe Sentinel:

The Green county volunteers have, during the past week, been hard at work drilling, and already begin to move with a good deal of military precision. They are a body of fine looking young men, and the orderly manner in which they conduct themselves shows that they are heartily engaged in preparing themselves to defend the honor and the flag of our country.

The pigeons are nesting this season about four miles south of this village, in the woods near Shobar's Mill. It is an unusual occurrence. They do great damage to neighboring wheat fields. The nesting place is a rare place of resort to lazy sportsmen, who like shooting more than hunting their game.

Judd Hurlbut and Edward Morris, who were so seriously injured last week by the discharge of the cannon, are, we are happy to state, both now doing well, and lively hopes are entertained of the speedy healing of their wounds.

The amputation of the mutilated arms of both young men was performed by Dr. J. M. Ball. The remnant of Hurlbut's right hand, though much mutilated, will probably be saved so as to leave him serviceable a thumb and the two first fingers.

On Sabbath last, Dr. Lombard, attending physician, extracted from the socket of the right eye of young Morris, several splinters, two of which were three-fourths of an inch in length. They were slivered from the ramrod, and penetrated the eye socket just above the eye ball. An incision had to be made into the eye lid in order to extract them. They were rough and jagged, and it is a marvel that his eye escaped. The operation of extraction was exceedingly painful.

A War Incident.—While one of the Massachusetts regiments was in New York, on its way to Washington, a gentleman residing there met one of its members on the street.

"Is there anything I can do for you, sir?" said the New Yorker, his heart warming toward the representative of the brave Massachusetts militia who had so promptly answered the call of their country.

The soldier hesitated a moment, and finally raising one of his feet exhibited a boot with a hole in the toe, and generally worse for wear.

"How came you here with such boots as that, my friend?" asked the patriotic citizen.

"When the order came for me to join my company, sir," replied the soldier, "I was plowing in the same field at Concord where my grandfather was plowing when the British fired on the Massachusetts men at Lexington. He did not wait a moment, and I did not, sir."

It ir unnecessary to add that the soldier was immediately supplied with an excellent pair of boots.

A Spartan Mother.—The Richmond correspondent of the Philadelphia Inquirer has scared up a Spartan mother. Here she is:

A Spartan Mother.—To show the feeling that pervades womankind in this state, I will relate an incident that occurred only yesterday. An elderly lady was traveling to Washington to arrange for the removal of her son from the naval academy at Annapolis, when a Virginia soldier entered the car. She placed her hand upon him, and with a look of disgust she said:

"You should be ashamed of yourself, sir, traveling about here in your uniform. You should take your life in one hand and your knife in the other, and bring to Richmond the head of Abe Lincoln."

A Significant Incident.—A gentleman named Ross, formerly a resident of Missouri has arrived at Potosi, Wis., bringing with him twenty slaves, whom he has voluntarily manumitted. Before leaving Missouri he was offered $15,000 for them.

Doctor Paley use to warn his daughters against buying even a handkerchief or a calico gown, when they had not the money in their hands to pay for it, because, said he, "the money you see in your palm today looks larger than the money you expect to-morrow; and when you buy, pay on the spot, for you will spend less than by shopping with your credit-book instead of your purse."

South Carolina Troops for Virginia.—Gen. M. L. Bonham will start with his staff and regiment this morning for Richmond. The men of Col. Gregg's fine, well-disciplined regiment have volunteered with the greatest enthusiasm. Gov. McGowan's brigade have also tendered their services. From two to three thousand of our men are ready and anxious to be on the march to assist the Old Dominion.—Charleston Courier, 22d.

Rev. Dr. Bellows of New York, in speaking of the crisis, in a recent discourse, said—"Our strife, alas, is with our brethren; but when a brother strikes at a mother's heart, filial duty takes precedence of fraternal obligation."

The Providence Journal says that in the Rhode Island regiment, not ten men, if they were asked whether they were republicans or democrats, could tell, without stopping to think.

No Doubt of it.—The Charlestion correspondent of the New York Times writes that "there is less enthusiasm for marching north than there was to attack Fort Sumter," and that "Pickens will not be attacked until Bragg has a sure thing." All of which is no doubt true.

More Dead Letters.—The Louisville Courier, a rabid secession paper, has a correspondent in the troops that left that place the other day to join the confederate army. Despatching from Nashville, he says, "say to those who desire to write that our address is Washington City." There is likely to be a large increase of labor in the dead letter office.

"Hypocrisy of Northern Statesmen."—The Richmond Enquirer of last Saturday has a doleful article under this head.—It devotes a few lines of plaintive whinings each to Millard Fillmore, Gen. Cass, Buchanan, Douglas, Ben. F. Butler, and "last, though not least, to Franklin Pierce," and finishes its article in the following strain:

These facts carry on their face their own proper commentary. They clearly demonstrate the fact that the northern "allies," upon whom we chiefly relied, are as "false as hell," and that our only safety, is in the erection of a wall between us and them "as high as Heaven."

An April fool hoax was perpetrated in Toronto. An advertisement was inserted in the papers that a sheriff's sale of horses and carriages would take place on Monday, the 1st inst., when people came from a great distance to attend the sale. While waiting, a cartload of wooden horses and wheelbarrows were driven up, and the customers saw themselves "sold."

A Child's Prayer.—My little friend Amanda, playing with her doll, accidentally broke off its head. She looked at for a moment, tried to replace it, but finding all her efforts fruitless, she repaired to her mother's bedroom and offered up the prayer of faith to her heavenly father, that her doll might be restored whole as before.—Through the aid of her earthly mother her prayer was granted.

An Outrageous Slander.—We find the following attack on our assemblyman, James Campbell, in the Madison Argus and Democrat, of April 18th:

"The Bulldog of the Treasury."—That was the name given by some to Assemblyman Campbell, chairman of the committee on claims, because he was so energetic and successful in defeating the payment of accounts due from the state to individuals. But he feathered his own nest well. His stock of "stealings" in the way of stationery, postage stamps, documents and things picked up around, was so large that he was obliged to hire a drayman to take them to the depot!—This is a fact."

The above is not only not a "fact," but it is a falsehood. Mr. Campbell only brought home his trunk of personal baggage, as we have learned of those who roomed with him and came home with him. The cause of this libel is that an attempt was made to get a bill of $1250 through the legislature to pay the publishers of the Argus and Democrat for blanks that had once been settled for fully, and with more allowed than was just. This Mr. Campbell opposed, as he did every dishonest claim against the state, which of course brought on his head the abuse of our republican "forty."

Mr. Campbell, by his carefulness, firmness and honesty has saved the state many thousands by cutting off steals; hence the stealers gave him the title above. The cause of this particular attack may be found in the Journal of the Wisconsin Senate, April 4, 1861, in a minority report, signed by James Campbell and S. W. Benson. But Mr. C. needs no defence at our hands. He went into the assembly a stranger; at its close no man had more influence there than he had, and his constituents have reason to be proud of him.—Albany Times.

Strawberry Culture.—A writer in the American Farmer gives a few plain rules which he says, if followed to the letter, will prove themselves good rules. They are:

1st. Never have the beds so wide as to require the gatherer even to lean on them.

2d. Never use animal manure.

3d. Keep the beds clear of grass and weeds.

I find that any time from August to the blooming season will answer for the transplanting. The first requisite is to have the beds in good order. Lay them off five feet wide, then spread evenly over them a good coating of well rotted wood-pile manure or woods mould, which is to be deeply spaded in. During a moist or rainy spell set the plants in three rows, and from twelve to twenty-four inches apart in the row. I never permit the runners to take entire possession of my beds, but keep them back by pinching in the spring, and a fall weeding. By this treatment my beds are pretty well covered without being matted. After the fall weeding, the beds are sowed all over with wood ashes, and during the early winter, as there are opportunities, they are covered over with wood-pile manure or spent tan. During the early spring, when the beds are covered with young green leaves, they are well dusted with plaster or shell lime, and when the blooms show themselves, they are again sowed over with ashes. These sowings are always made in damp weather. This comprises the entire culture required to ensure this fruit in perfection.

In America Again.—A correspondent of the Pittsburgh Gazette, one of the dozen who made their way by carriage from Washington across Maryland to Pennsylvania, during the days of excitement that followed the Baltimore riot, says:

At Hagerstown, we got in the cars and were soon on our way towards the blessed free soil of old Pennsylvania. We got the conductor to give us a signal when we reached the line, and then the whole car as by one impulse, gave three of the heartiest cheers for the Union and the Keystone State. We shook hands all round, and blessed God that we were once more in the land of law and order. The skies shown brighter, and soon from trees, houses, stores, shops, fields and fences, the glorious emblem of the Union was seen, and cheer after cheer went up. Men pressed forward, whenever we stopped, and shook us by the hand; many hugged us as if glad that we had escaped from some sudden and imminent danger; on all hands cheers for the Union rent the air, and strains of martial music swelled upon the breeze. God bless our native land. My heart never swelled more proudly than when once more on free soil, I saw the spirit of our grand old State.

A Steam Gun.—A Baltimore paper has a description of a new gun, the invention of Charles S. Dickenson, which, it is stated, throws three hundred three-ounce balls per minute, a distance of one and a half miles. It is attached to a portable steam engine, which can be moved about with the facility of a gun carriage. The balls are placed in a hopper, through which they are lowered to the breach of a gun revolving with all the velocity that steam can apply, and instantaneous with their reaching the gun they are hurled forth with more force than can be given by the ordinary musket. It is estimated that one of these guns will be as serviceable upon a field of battle as ten thousand men. It can be adjusted to throw the balls within a given space, or it can be made to take a radius at the distance of a mile along the front columns of an army extending over several miles of ground. At the trial spoken of, it forced the ball thro' five planks, each one inch thick, and then flattened and tore them in pieces against a stone wall in the rear.

Good Blood!—The Springfield (Ill.) correspondent of the Missouri Democrat relates the following incident:

"An old man, whose six sons were all grown, offered no opposition to their desire of enlisting, but aided them by every means in his power. When the whole six had subscribed their names, and been sworn in, "Now," said the veteran father, "I am going to enlist."

"You?" was the smiling reply. "Do you think they would take such an old man as you are?"

"Wait till I show you!"

And going to a barber, he had the gray beard removed, the whitened hair turned to black, so that the officer accepted him at once, and I saw him in the ranks to-day grasping a musket, as proud and happy as a king. Are the men who do such things either cowards or triflers?"

MARRIED.

DIED.

In the city of Janesville, Wis., on Thursday evening, May 2d, 1861, LUCY D., wife of the Hon. Harmon S. Conger, formerly of Cortland, N. Y.

Mrs. Conger was the daughter of Elizur B. Canfield, esq., of Cortland, Cortland county, N. Y. She has been a resident of Janesville for the last six years. By her social qualities, which were many and pleasing, she had become greatly endeared to a large circle of friends.—She was also a consistent member of Trinity Church of this city, and by her daily deportment evinced her desire and purpose to be a sure follower of her Savior.—She has left us at the call of her Divine Master, having hope of an immortality of blessedness.

This affliction is severe indeed upon the heart of him whose life companion is thus removed from his side.—Her's is another home, fashioned by the great builder, while yet the earthly house is unfinished.

May the upward way that has brought her safe thither, be faithfully trod by her husband, relatives and friends, that those pleasant associations, begun under the reign of grace, may be resumed in the kingdom of glory. [Com.

The funeral will be attended from the residence of Dr. S. C. Bailey, at 3 o'clock P. M. Saturday, May 4th.

Experience having proved that simple remedies often act speedily and certainly when taken in the early stages of the disease, recourse should at once be had to "Brown's Bronchial Troches," or Lozenges, let the Cold, Cough, or Irritation of the throat be ever so so slight, as by this precaution a more serious attack may be effectually warded off. Citizens' Meeting in Johnstown.

The citizens of Johnstown are requested to assemble, en masse, at the Congregational meeting house at Johnstown village, on Tuesday, May 7th, 1861, at 7 o'clock P. M., for the purpose of devising measures to sustain the government of these United States in the present struggle.

Joseph A. Sleeper, James Armstrong, J. R. Bennett and W. H. Ebbetts of Janesville are expected to be present and address the meeting.

Come one, come all, ladies as well as others.

A. M. CARTER, Chairman.
D. R. SPOONER, Secretary.
Johnstown, May 1, 1861.

FIRE DEPARTMENT.—The several companies comprising the fire department of the city of Janesville will meet in front of the court house square on Monday, May 6th, at 10½ A. M., in full uniform, and without apparatus, for the purpose of participating in the escort of the Janesville Volunteers to the depot, on their departure from this city.

W. B. BRITTON,
Chief Engineer.

Military Drill.

Col. White's class met at the Hyatt House Hall last evening, pursuant to adjournment.

On motion of J. A. Sleeper, Esq., the class resolved to meet on the evenings of Tuesday and Thursday of each week for drill.

On motion of J. R. Bennett, Esq., it was unanimously resolved that the secretary be instructed to give notice that the class will meet on the evenings of Tuesday and Thursday of each week for drill, and that no spectators will be admitted to the drill room.

It was also resolved to increase the number to seventy-seven persons. Messrs. Cyrus Miner, John R. Bennett and Wm. A. Barstow were appointed a committee to receive and consider the applications of those who wish to join the class.

All persons who wish to join the class will please hand their names to the above named gentlemen.

Many persons seem to confound this class with the "Home Guard." I understand that many of our citizens who cannot leave home are intending, hereafter, to form a company to be called the "Home Guard," but this class is composed of a few citizens who desire to become familiar with military drill, without reference to a future organization, and who have secured the services of Col. White to drill them.

A. A. JACKSON, Sec'y.

SPECIE FOR GRAIN.—At a meeting of farmers in Green county, it was resolved to sell their produce for specie only.

SHIRTS FOR VOLUNTEERS.—The ladies of Madison are making shirts for volunteers coming into camp from other parts of the state without them. We suppose the material is furnished by the state. The ladies occupy the assembly chamber in doing the work.

RESOLUTIONS OF WATER WITCH ENGINE COMPANY.—The following resolutions were adopted by No. 2's boys last night:

WHEREAS: In response to the call of their country, several members of this company have enrolled themselves as volunteers to fight her battles, therefore,

Resolved, That while we as a company, regret to part with them, we yet feel proud that they go forth with so noble motives and in so noble a cause.

Resolved, That we are sure that they will ever prove themselves true men, and whatever may be the fortunes of war, that they will always honor the flag which they represent.

Resolved, That it is our earnest prayer that a kind Providence will watch over and protect them, and their dear ones whom they shall leave behind, and that when the conflict is over, they may return to us again, but if fall they must—they may fall with their faces to the foe.

C. P. KING, Foreman.
WM. H. SARGENT, Clerk.

A resolution was also passed that the company appear in uniform on Monday next and escort the volunteers to the depot, on their departure for Madison.

A CORRECTION.—In our recent notice of companies now formed, or forming in this city, we mentioned the Janesville Volunteer Rifles instead of the Rock County Sharpshooters, not knowing that they had formally adopted a name. We understand that the Sharpshooters, as a military organization, was built upon the ruins of the Cavalry company organised by Messrs. Calkins and Gillett, which was one of the first complete companies organized in this city.

A UNION FLAG.—The employees of the Milwaukee and Prairie du Chien and the Chicago and Northwestern railways, with the aid of those companies, have purchased a beautiful national flag, costing when complete over $100, which they propose to raise over the Union Depot of this city. The flag staff is 85 feet in length, and will be placed in its proper position to-morrow morning at 10 o'clock. The flag will be raised at the departure of Capt. Ely's company of volunteers for Madison, on Monday at 11 o'clock A. M. It will be hoisted to its place by J. P. Wheeler, Esq. H. N. Comstock, Esq., will represent the Milwaukee and Prairie du Chien company on the occasion, and W. H. Ebbets, Esq., the Chicago and Northwestern. The flag will be for the Union in more than one sense, as it represents our glorious union of states, as well as the union in sentiment and feeling between the employees and owners of the two railroad companies named. It will be a good thing performed at the right time.

☞ Judge McArthur has decided the city tax of Milwaukee of 1858-59 to be legal.

Proceedings of the City Council.

REGULAR MEETING,
THURSDAY EVENING, May 2d, 1861.

Present—The Mayor, and Ald. Tallman, Bates, Barnes, Collins, Parker and Smith.

Absent—Ald. Pearce and Shelton.

An order of $2.50 was ordered to be drawn on the 2d ward fund, in favor of H. Vosburgh.

On motion of Ald. Bates, the aldermen of the 1st ward were instructed to have the building recently located on the public square opposite the Hyatt House removed.

The finance committee reported in favor of passing the bill of Sleeper & Norton, for legal services, in the suit of Clark & Co. vs. the city. Considerable discussion arose as to the bill, and, on motion of Ald. Collins, Ald. Tallman and Bates were appointed a committee to settle with Sleeper & Norton, on a basis of payment in tax certificates at their face.

The claim of the 1st ward for payment of school house from the ward fund also gave rise to some discussion, but no action was taken.

Council adjourned.

Meeting in the Town of Janesville.

At a meeting of the inhabitants of the town of Janesville, held at the Rock River House, May 1st 1861, called by A. W. Pope, one of the county committee for the purpose of organizing the town, and co-operating with the county committee of the Rock County Union and Relief Society, Z. P. Burdick was elected chairman, and J. W. Russell secretary.

On motion, a committee of three on resolutions were appointed by the chair, consisting of A. W. Pope, James Carle and John Jones. The committee on resolutions reported the following, which were unanimously adopted:

WHEREAS, An unprecedented and unholy rebellion is raging in some of the Southern States of this confederacy, to an alarming extent, and

WHEREAS, Our worthy chief magistrate has made a call upon the executive of this State for troops to put down said rebellion and maintain the Union of these United States, as bequeathed to us by the wisdom of our noble sires, and which is indispensable for our peace at home and respect abroad; therefore,

Resolved, That the present crisis in our national affairs demands our speedy and energetic action in raising men and money, for the purpose of preserving our free institutions, protecting our flag, and restoring peace and prosperity to our country by putting down rebellion, and punishing traitors.

Resolved, That we stand ready now, without mental reserve or distinction of party, and ever will stand ready to answer to our beloved country's call, to the extent of our ability, whether that call be for men or money.

Resolved, That since civilization first dawned on erring man, there has not been another so unnecessary, unholy, ungrateful and suicidal rebellion as that of the attempted by the secession states of this Union at the present time, and that the general government would be justified by the civilized and enlightened world in using, within the pale of humanity, every means known to modern warfare for the purpose of putting down such an unholy attempt at revolution.

Resolved, That a committee, consisting of one from each school district, be appointed by this meeting to act as a sub-committee to the county committee of the Rock county union and relief society as mentioned in the second and six resolutions of said society.

On motion, a committee appointed by the chair, consisting of A. W. Merrifield, James W. Lawrence, A. J. Glass, James Bear and J. S. Dayton, to report one person from each school district, to constitute a subcommittee for the Rock County Union and Relief Society, reported as follows:

James W. Russell, Ch'n, O. D. Brace, J. S. Dayton, Virgil Pope, J. W. Nash, Leonard Yeomans and David Jeffries.

Resolved, That the proceedings of this meeting be published in the Gazette & Free Press.

Resolved, That we now adjourn.

Z. P. BURDICK, Ch'n.
JAMES W. RUSSELL, Sec'y.

Attention, Volunteers!

The Janesville City Cavalry, which was recently organized in this city, having elected their officers, and tendered their services to the governor, were informed by him that he had no authority to call out cavalry.—At a subsequent meeting the company disbanded, and re-organized as an infantry company, to be called the Rock County Sharpshooters.

The company have now fifty names on their roll, and as soon as a full quota of men are enrolled, a new election of officers will be held.

Those desiring to enlist, will please present themselves for enrollment to S. D. Locke, at the office of Bennett, Cassoday & Gibbs; to Almon Calkins, at his store; to C. G. Gillett, at the office of the Police Justice in this city, or A. Kettler, at his store.

THE NATIONAL GUARD.—We are gratified to learn that this fine company has been accepted by the governor, and will probably be assigned a place in the fifth regiment. A few more members will be accepted on application to Ira Justin or E. D. Tallman. Persons from the country wishing to join the National Guard will be provided with board and lodging. The arms for the company are expected soon.

Important Discoveries and New Arrangements!

THE subscriber has discovered upon his premises a splendid which promises to surpass anything yet found in the state, as well as add to the many already developed resources of our city,

A Beautiful, Cheap and Durable Building Material,

He has made arrangements to work this, together with the justly celebrated

Monterey Lime Stone Quarry, on a scale equal to the demands of our enterprising citizens, and in order to accommodate his numerous customers, he has made arrangements to keep constantly on hand a large supply of

ATHENS MARBLE

(or Chicago stone.) He is now fitting up extensive saw and scouring mills, and other machinery necessary for working the same, at a great reduction from former prices.

He also wishes to call attention to the fact that sound cutting or dimension stone can only be found at great distances from the surface, and that the Monterey Quarry is the only one in this county that has been worked far enough to reach those formations that are imperishable when exposed to the action of air and frost.

He is also supplying his Quarry with Derricks to facilitate the handling and loading large stone, and is fitting up expensive wagons, carts and trucks, rigged with the most approved appliances for moving and delivering dimension stone of any size, from two to thirty feet square, and from six to twenty inches thick, or any required length up to one hundred feet, to any part of the city or on board of the cars.

He is prepared to furnish

Cut Stone

of every description,

PLAIN, MOULDED, CARVED OR POLISHED FLAGGIN

of any required dimension.

Curbing, Paving, Ruble and Coursing

stone of the best quality in the state, all of which will be delivered at his Quarries or any part of the city to suit purchasers.

In conclusion, he begs to assure the public that from the superior quality of his materials, and facilities for furnishing, he can and will make it to their interests to patronize the Monterey Quarries.

All Orders from the city or country will be promptly attended to.

Insurance against loss or damage by fire, on Dwellings, Furniture, Stores, Warehouses, Merchandise, Mills, Manufactories, and most other kinds of property, can be effected in this company upon as favorable terms as the nature of the risks and security of policy-holders will admit.

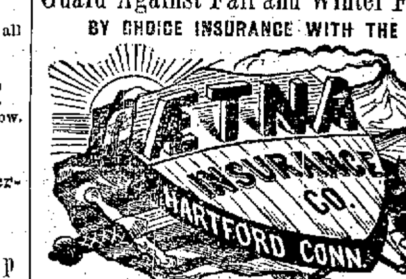

The above is the oldest company doing business in this state, and with peculiar propriety has been denominated "The Old Hartford." As an indemnity to the insured, it refers to a solid million of assets well invested; and if anything were needed to commend it to the public for liberal patronage, we might offer its history of success in business and honorable dealing with its patrons, for over half a century, as amply sufficient for the purpose.

THE above are First Class, justly popular, and prompt paying companies. They invite investigation into their condition and solicit business entirely upon their real merits. In point of solvency and reliability and honorable dealing, they have but few equals, and no superiors. They are founded upon the very best securities in the world—first class bonds and mortgages upon property in New York and Brooklyn—securities that have not, for the past ten years, depreciated below par, and are every way more reliable and permanent than railroad, bank, and other stocks, which are subject to the fluctuations of the market, and liable, in times of panic, as the experience of the past teaches, to become almost, if not entirely, valueless. And while there are Companies entering the field of competition, well calculated to mislead by publishing partial and one-sided statements of their condition, and without a cash surplus on hand sufficient to reinsure their outstanding risks, the above named companies always have and keep over and above their capital twice the amount, and in most instances four times, needed for the reinsurance of all their risks. With such a foundation, and with such a condition, they claim the right to look with confidence to the public for liberal patronage.

Policies issued without delay, and farms risks for a series of years taken at less rates than can be done by Mutual Companies, and a certainty given instead of an uncertainty. All losses promptly adjusted and paid.

New York Life Insurance Company,

CASH CAPITAL OVER - - $1,000,000

all well invested for the benefit of Policy holders, so that the profits of this vast sum pay a large proportion of their annual premiums. This is unquestionably the very best Life Company doing business in this state.
